

Dana Hewit
Battelle Savannah River Alliance/SRNL

As the Deputy Laboratory Director for Operations at Savannah River National Laboratory, with more than 25 years of experience across the DOE complex focused on operational excellence, safety, and mission delivery in highly regulated environments, my experience includes leading complex research and nuclear operations and strengthening performance across large organizations. As an EFCOG Board member, I would bring a practical, collaborative approach to advancing operational performance and sharing best practices across the enterprise.